PASTOR'S MESSAGE

This past week, Catholic priests, deacons and pastoral associates of the Canadian Armed Forces gathered in Cornwall for fellowship and to address issues facing the Roman Catholic Military Ordinariate. Chaplains from across the country hadn't assembled in person since 2019, and it was the first time that denominations convened separately. I was honoured to lead the final liturgy: a Rosary for Peace.

I will be on vacation this week, but the church will be open for the full slate of Masses, with the exception of 5:00 PM on Saturday, 27 June when Dn. Bob Van de Laar will offer a Liturgy of the Word with Communion.

Fr. Francis Ndey will say his final Monday Mass on 22 June, as well as the Masses on Tuesday and Wednesday, before leaving for the Diocese of London early Friday.

INDIGENOUS RECONCILIATION FUND

This Weekend: Help Us Reach the Finish Line.

This weekend, parishes across our Archdiocese will participate in the diocesan collection for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund. More than $1 million has already been raised toward our Archdiocese's $1.2 million pledge, helping support Indigenous-led projects focused on youth, education, culture, healing and community-building. As we mark National Indigenous Peoples Day, we invite you to help complete the final phase of our diocesan pledge. To learn more about the projects being supported or to donate online, visit journeyforhealing.ca
